CAUTION.
ALL persons are hereby forewarned from trading for four several notes, executed by me to David H. Hoopes and Wm. T.
Purnell, partners in Port Gibson in the pracor about the 15th day of January, 1838—The one to David H. Hoopes, for the sum of three hundred and seventy-five dollars, and another to Wm. T. Purnell for the same sum of money, and being in or about the same date, and each of the first notes were payable I think about six months after date.

The two other notes were in like manner executed; the one to David H. Hoopes, and the other to Wm. T. Purnell, in amount five hundred dollars each note. The said notes were executed about twelve months since. This is to caution all persons from trading for the said notes and entirely filled for which they were severally executed; and to forewarn all persons from paying to said Hoopes & Purnell any debt due to me.

And I wish it furthermore understood, that James E. P. Bacon and William R. T.
Chaplain, are my true and lawful attorneys, and that I do by this notice, give them unlimited power, to close all of my business, in any way that they may deem most conducive to my interest. And persons who are still in arrears to me, will save cost by calling at the office of either Bacon or Chaplain at Port Gibson, and closing their accounts, &c.

A CARD.

HAVING established ourselves in the city of Vicksburg, with the view of facilitating the business of the house of Hart, Butler & Co. of New Orleans with the Planters in this section of the state. We wish a share of public patronage, we feel ourselves fully competent to afford the usual facilities to the planters which has heretofore been extended to them by the number of well known established houses, both of this city and the city of New Orleans.

We are assured to say to the Planter that the house in New Orleans has taken out an open policy of insurance which extends to the waters of the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri rivers, and all their tributaries, which advantage it is to the planter when shipping his cotton to the house of Hart, Butler & Co. and informing them, or the house of A. Hart jr. & Co. of the shipment; to either house it will be considered fully insured and protected from loss or damage.

We will receive and forward cotton, and will at all times be prepared to sell bills of Exchange on New Orleans in sums to suit purchasers, at sight.

PROPOSALS
FOR PUBLISHING A WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER IN
THE CITY OF VICKSBURG, TO BE CALLED THE HARRISON BANNER.
By Wm. H. McCABE and A. LINDSEY, Editors of the Vicksburg Whig.

THE object of this paper is expressed by its name. It is intended to advocate the claims of WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON OF OHIO, to the Presidential Chair, not from a desire to elevate him as a man, but as the representative of those great principles for which the true friends of republican government have contended from the time of the revolution to the present day. In order to effect this object, we shall endeavor to show by reference to the records of the country, by the production of facts, arguments and illustrations, that the doctrines now and heretofore advocated by GEN-ERAL HARRISON and his friends, are those inculcated by Washington and Jefferson, and avowed, but not acted on, by Andrew Jackson. We shall produce authentic documents in the shape of votes, bills, resolutions, reports, &c., which will prove that a portion of the most prominent men at present in the administration party of the United States, were the original supporters of the old blue-light federal party at the time of the Hartford Convention; that the government as now conducted must ultimately become a consolidated monarchy; that our country, equally removed from aristocracy, on the one side and mobocracy on the other, are those alone upon which a republican government can be so conducted as to advance the welfare and happiness of its own citizens, and elevate its character for honor and integrity with foreigners. In short, that truth, reason and experience, sustain the position which the Whig party of the country hold now, and ever have held, and that the life, services and character of Gen. Harrison, are such as to warrant the conclusion that he will carry them out in every particular.

In undertaking this publication, the Editors have no private ends to advance, no personal interests to subserve. If the actual and indispensable expenses of the paper can be met, they are content to devote the time and labor which may be required of them, to that old cause for which they have ever struggled, and to the success of which they now look forward with a degree of confidence almost amounting to certainty.

TERMS.
The Banner will be published (if the subscription should justify it) from the 1st of May until the election in November, at the moderate price of $2 per copy. Individuals sending the money for 10 subscribers free of postage will be entitled to one copy gratis.
Cash required invariably in advance.

THE EMPIRE STATE.
JANUARY 1, 1840.
PROSPECTUS.

DETERMINED to make adequate returns for the liberal and increasing encouragement given to this paper, which bears aloft the Name and defends the Honor and Interests of the EMPIRE STATE—the publishers propose, on the commencement of the year 1840, to issue this paper in the folio form, on an enlarged sheet of the Mammoth Size, to exceed in size and style of execution, any weekly newspaper published in this city or country. The most ample arrangements are making to give to the paper all those attractions, as a well conducted Political, Literary and Miscellaneous Journal, which the intelligence and good taste of the present age require. In its arrangement and execution, and the amount of reading matter it will contain, as well as in its early and faithful record of News, foreign and domestic, local and general, the EMPIRE STATE will be unequalled. It will remain staunch, as it ever has been, in support of sound Democratic Whig Principles—an advocate of Public and Private Economy, Public and Private Virtue, Equal Rights and Equal Laws. And in catering for the general reader, we shall spare no pains or expense to render the paper attractive, valuable and useful. The choicest selections will be regularly made from the current Literature of the day, together with ample original contributions from the pens of able and practised writers.

TERMS OF THE EMPIRE STATE.
ENLARGED SERIES.
The paper will be published on a Mammoth folio sheet, on paper of superior quality, and beautiful type.
The price will be $2.50 per annum—in all cases in advance. No paper sent until the money is received; and no subscriptions received for a less term than six months.
Those who are now subscribers, or wish to avail themselves of the privilege of the present terms, may do so by enclosing $2 at any time prior to the 1st January, 1840, and the paper will be sent for one year. After that date, the terms will invariably be $2.50 per annum, in advance.

papers to give the above one or two insertions.

SOCIAL HALL.
THIS new establishment is situated south of the public square, in the town of LEXINGTON, MISS.,
and is open for the reception of travellers and boarders. The subscriber is improving and will continue to improve his house until he makes it comfortable, and he assures those who may call on him, that all his energies shall be put in requisition for their comfort and convenience. He will be governed in his charges by the rates usually exacted.
Our charge for instance—man and horse per night, with supper and breakfast $1.
All other in proportion.

As before observed, if he fails to render those comfortable who may call on him, it shall be the want of ability and not inclination.
The Social Hall is retired, and no interference or disorder will be permitted about it.

LEXINGTON, MISS.,

his charges by the rates usually exacted.

New Sporting and Agricultural Publications.

DEAR Sir, Mr. Porter, editor and proprietor of the New York Times, the only newspaper dedicated to Sporting, published here, having refused to give our prospectus a place in that paper, or even a short notice as common advertisement, although tendered payment; we are, in consequence, constrained to issue a circular, one of which we have taken the liberty of forwarding to you, and solicit your patronage and that of your friends.

CADWALLADER R. CODEN & CO.
Office No. 105 Fulton Street, New York
February 25th, 1839.

To all Sportsmen and Supporters of the Turf, Breeders of Blood Horses, of Improved Cattle and Sheep, Planters, Farmers, Agriculturists, and the public in general.

THE WHIP.
Under the above title, will appear, on the first Monday in May next, a weekly newspaper, dedicated to Sporting, Agriculture, and Rural Pursuits and Recreations in general, blended with Poetic Notices, Green Room Intelligence, Political Reports of moment, Fanciful Events of Interest, with a glance at the Fashionable Life of the day.

This weekly paper, though published in connection with a Sporting and Agricultural Magazine, as an auxiliary or adjunct sheet, thrown off weekly, will contain every item of interest, agricultural intelligence, and passing occurrences, at an earlier date than the monthly periodical might be able to furnish the same, without any additional charge than the subscription to the latter; nevertheless, subscriptions to this weekly publication will be made at a special rate, for the first year, at five dollars per annum, payable in advance.

SPORTING AND AGRICULTURAL MAGAZINE.
This periodical will appear on the first day of June next, and thereafter be issued in numbers, on the first of each month. Six numbers to constitute the semi-annual volume.
The body of the work, or magazine proper, will each number, contain four sheets, or sixty-four pages, occasionally more. To each number will be appended accounts of both American and English Racing, forming correct and complete Race-ing Calendars, &c. The whole matter thus embraced by each number, will comprise from five to six sheets, i. e. from eighty to ninety-six pages. It will be printed in octavo form, upon handsome paper.

Each number will be embellished with engravings, upon copper or steel, of the portraits of distinguished sportsmen, celebrated cattle, and representations of other objects of interest.

Although subscriptions in advance will be at all times acceptable, yet such will not be exacted until the volume shall have been furnished.

TERMS.—$5 for the semi-annual volume of six numbers, (equal to $10 per annum) payable on the completion of each volume.

To those who subscribe for the Magazine, the weekly newspaper will also be sent as an adjust sheet, without any additional charge. Thus subscribers to the former, will have the benefit of both for $5 payable semi-annually, after receiving, and through the medium of the latter, be put in possession of all transient news, sporting and agricultural intelligence of the day, at an early period as can be given by any weekly print.

It must be evident that a work of the magnitude and got up in the style proposed, cannot be afforded (apart from any auxiliary publication) where talent is employed, at less than $5 semi-annually, but the proprietors satisfied that a weekly publication which gives to the public the intelligence, passing events and matter of moment, no matter how trifling its general contents, must render the circulation of a monthly periodical, and determined to furnish the earliest information, have deemed it advisable, thus to throw out weekly assistance.

By the mode proposed, subscribers will derive this further advantage. That as the weekly paper will contain accounts of all races in calendar form, as they from time to time come off, notices of races to come, sweepstakes open or closed, matches, "on dirt," weekly occurrences, sporting and agriculture intelligence generally, and a multiplicity of the like, not requisite to carry into the Magazine as matter of record or reference, its pages thus devoted to much extraneous matter, with which they would otherwise in some measure of necessity be clogged, will have the more room for that which is enter-t
